

Aces Over the Ledges - WWI Fun Fly

Hosted by Capital Area Radio Drone Squad (CARDS)

Come out to see this scale World War I Remote Control Air Show. CARDS is remembering the Aces of the Great War by hosting an Air Show of all the World War I airplanes. You will be able to see representations of all the planes used including those by the famed Eddie Rickenbacker and Manfred von Richthofen (the Red Barron).

Featured Airplanes

- Nieuport 17 & 28
- Fokker DR1 & DRVII
- Sopwith Camel
- Spad XIII
- SE5A
- Sopwith Pup
- Albatross DI

Event open to any size WWI airplane

ACES Over Grand Ledge RC Fun Fly and Air Show July 26-27 9AM to 5PM

CARDS RC Field
8328 Otto Rd.
Grand Ledge, MI
More Info at:
www.cardsrc.com

Pilots any sized WWI airplane can fly. Landing fee $20.
Registration and more info at
www.cardsrc.com